9. The staffing complement of the Management Evaluation Unit is composed of a Chief (P-5), who reports to the Director of the Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Management, two Legal Officers (P-4), one Legal Officer (P-4) (general temporary assistance) and three Legal Assistants (General Service (Other level)). However, the current staffing resources of the Unit are inadequate to meet its mandate, especially in the light of the consistent upward trend in the number of requests it receives. Management evaluations are time-consuming and labour-intensive, requiring extensive consultation with staff and management and thorough and complex legal research, analyses, drafting and review. The process takes place within strictly imposed deadlines (30 days for requests for management evaluation submitted by staff located at Headquarters, 45 days for staff located in offices away from Headquarters).

2. Paragraph 19

19. On 1 January 2010, 143 cases were transferred from the United Nations Administrative Tribunal to the Dispute Tribunal. These cases were distributed among the Registries of the Dispute Tribunal as follows: 51 cases to Geneva, 40 cases to Nairobi and 52 cases to New York.
